

SIA-INDIA'S 1 YR IN SATELLITE INDUSTRY

New Delhi: SIA-India on Wednesday completed one year of representing the Satellite industry of India during which the association successfully brought together industry leaders, both domestic and international, to discuss various opportunities and challenges of the satellite industry in India, the need for easy business processes, spectrum issues, new businesses, hand holding for young entrepreneurs, role of academia and a strong legal arm to help navigate through the international treatise, M&A amongst other issues.